Incidents, continued

Indecent Exposure – On July 13 at 5:21PM, officers responded to the 13200 block of Kahns Rd. in Manassas (20112) to investigate an indecent exposure. The investigation revealed the victim, a 13-year-old female juvenile, was walking in the above area when a vehicle pulled up next to her. The driver of the vehicle, an unknown man, called to the victim and when the victim approached the vehicle, she observed the man was exposing himself and making inappropriate gestures. The victim quickly separated from the suspect and reported the incident to a family member who contacted the police. At no point during the encounter was any physical contact made between the victim and the suspect. While investigating the incident, officers determined the day prior the same man drove up to the victim's residence and attempted to make contact with the occupants. When no contact was made with the occupants of the home, the suspect left the area. The suspect is described as a black male, with a slim build, hair twists and a goatee.

Arrests
